PRODUCT SUMMARY

Playbox is an immersive and interactive game platform designed with gameplay in mind. Players can either compete with each other or play all together as a team. They can chose and the operator can select whichever option is more viable.

When being played as a team, the entire screen displays one game where all participate and accumulate on the same score. When players compete, the screen splits and individual scores show the progress. It is fun, it is collaborative and it is mostly competitive which drive repeatable business.
